Sail and Snorkel the Low Isles Day Trip

The Low Isles tropical island is situated approximately 8 nautical miles from Port Douglas and is home to not only spectacular coral gardens and marine life, but to a host of spectacular migratory bird life such as mangrove kingfishers, sea eagles and ospreys.

Bounded by 55 acres of coral reef, much of it close to the shore, snorkelling from the boat allows guests to enjoy the many different coral species with little effort.

The sanctity of the blue lagoon creates a calm and protected snorkelling site with an abundance of marine life such as fusiliers, sweet-lip, angelfish and turtles.

Port Douglas Sunset Sailing

Watch the sunset over the Dickson Inlet of Port Douglas and out over the Coral Sea on board the most luxurious sailing catamaran in the harbour. Our 1.5 hour sail over the Coral Sea creates a memory that will last a life time.
