Hartley's Crocodile Adventures

Hartley's Crocodile Adventures provides a fresh approach to wildlife experiences, enabling close encounters with the animals in safe and natural environment. A series of timber boardwalks provide elevated viewing of wildlife as visitors journey through a range of natural habitats.

Located on the magnificent coastal drive in-between the popular destinations of Palm Cove and Port Douglas. Hartley's Crocodile Adventures is located on the Captain Cook Highway, 25 km south of Port Douglas. Hartley's Crocodile Adventures is the number one place to see crocodiles and native wildlife up close, in Tropical North Queensland. Hartley's Crocodile Adventures is home to a range of habitat types including melaleuca wetlands, riverine rainforest and eucalypt woodland.

Hartley's is famous for its exciting and educational wildlife presentations including wetland wildlife, crocodile shows, cassowary feeding, snake show, koala feeding and more. Most activities are presented more than once ensuring all visitors get a complete experience at Hartley's Crocodile Adventures. Our experienced keepers are on hand to answer questions about the animals and their habitat.

Hot Air and Hartleys

Our dawn Hot Air Balloon ride includes transfers to Hartley's boat cruise and crocodile feeding show. Returns mid afternoon. (Lunch at own expense).

For the genuine Australian wildlife experience, Hartley's Crocodile Adventures provides a safe, personal and interactive viewing environment. Put this tour on your A list when you come to tropical North Queensland.

We recommend waiting until your arrival to book your tours as they can be weather dependant and there may be a special promotion that you will be able to take advantage of.

If you specifically need to prebook any tour due to your time restraints, please contact us directly or enquire now so we can help you via our free service tour desk.
