The Rainforest Habitat

Hand feed kangaroos, wallabies & ducks, hold a koala or a snake and get up close to crocodiles. View the endangered Southern Cassowary, the rare Lumholtz's tree kangaroo, frogs, turtles, lizards and so much more. Interact with an array of water birds, cockatoos, kookaburras, emus, pelicans, parrots and a multitude of bird species.

A leader in its field of wildlife immersion exhibits, the award winning Rainforest Habitat Wildlife Sanctuary provides visitors with a chance to observe up close a huge range of flora and fauna.

Admission

The Rainforest Habitat is open between the hours of 8:00am and 5:30pm daily (except Christmas Day) with last entries at 4:30pm.

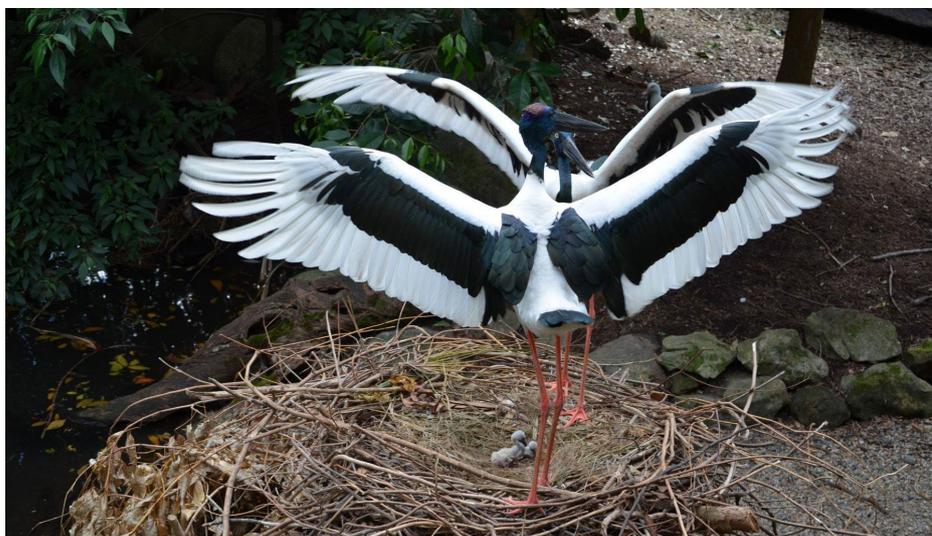

Informative guided tours are available throughout the day in all areas of the park, where experienced guides introduce visitors to the special interdependence that the wildlife shares with the Wet Tropics region.

Breakfast With The Birds (Price includes admission)

For the a total experience, the Breakfast with the Birds is a visitor essential. Guests are entertained within the Wetlands environment whilst enjoying the symphony of sounds and colours of the local residents as they wander freely amongst the guests.

Lunch With The Lorikeets (Price includes Admission)

Enjoy a delicious buffet lunch in the company of colourful lorikeets, and also, curlews, parrots, herons and a host of other birdlife. Lunch includes soup and breads, steak, fish and pasta, fresh salads, cheese, crackers and tropical fruits, tea and coffee. Served daily from 12 to 2pm.

We recommend waiting until your arrival to book your tours as they can be weather dependant and there may be a special promotion that you will be able to take advantage of.

If you specifically need to prebook any tour due to your time restraints, please contact us directly or enquire now so we can help you via our free service tour desk.
